DR. K. L. MOUDGILL: Sir, I must do a little calculation to answer that question.

PRESIDENT: If the honourable member has no information he can claim notice.

DR. K. L. MOUDGILL: I shall supply it later Sir.

MR: KANNANTHODATH JANARDANAN NAIR: Sir, I rise to a point of order. I have asked what amount was spent for the cold storage plant for the first half of 1116. The honourable member has answered that Rs. 1,300 were spent. Then I asked him what amount was spent for establishment charges in connection with the working of the cold storage plant. Is it in order for the honourable member to say that he ha not prepared the answer?

PRESIDENT: There is no point in raising a point of order in this case. The Government member only stated that he will supply the information later after making some calculation. If the honourable member wants such information he can apply for it and get the information.
